Dutch Overvalwagen Braat Armoured Car hull – Museum Satria Mandala, Jakarta, Jawa Island (Indonesia)

An Overwagen Braat car hull was used to create an armoured railway draisine. After 1945 the Dutch East Indies railroads (especially the workshops at Manggarai in the capital) adapted several Braat Overvalwagens for use on railroads. The hull was simply welded to a rail carriage. This vehicle is equipped with a canvas cover to protect its crew from sun and hand grenades

Marc Koelich – <http://www.overvalwagen.com/overval2.html>

Dutch Overvalwagen Braat Armoured Car hulls Military Museum "Mandala Wangsit", Bandung, Jawa Island (Indonesia)

Two Overwagen Braat cars hulls were connected back to back to form a 8-wheel armoured railway draisine. Extra armour has been placed below the vehicle and on top of the sides and a large cover has been placed on top. Huge radiator grilles are added as well

I'm looking for photos of those armoured car :

Any vehicle that I forgot...

This document is a compilation of photos published on the web. I would like to thank especially Rafał Białecki, who deserved the most part of the job on this document, and also the people who took these photos and put them on their websites, or sent them to me, and those who helped me doing these lists (particularly people of the AFV News Discussion Board). For any question, you can email me at soldat_ryan@hotmail.com
