SU-122 – Museum of military equipment "Battle Glory of the Urals", Verkhnyaya Pyshma, Sverdlovsk Oblast (Russia)

This tank was previously located at the polygon 56 Guards Regional Training Center (56 Гв.ОУЦ) near Sertolovo (Alexei Luchanin). It was missing its main gun and mount, which are reproductions. The front hull was plated over, and removed during the restoration

SU-85A – Museum of the National Military History Padikovo, Moscow Oblast (Russia) – running condition

Restored from a prime mover, produced in May, 1944 (Yuri Pasholok)

Vadim Elistratov, August 2019

SU-85 – State Military Technical Museum, Ivanovskoye Moscow Oblast – running c.
 Rebuilt from the remains of tanks completely destroyed during the war, which were found by search teams on the battlefields

SU-85 – Museum of military equipment "Battle Glory of the Urals" Verkhnyaya Pyshma, Sverdlovsk Oblast (Russia)

This tank was previously located at the polygon 56 Guards Regional Training Center (56 Гв.ОУЦ) near Sertolovo (Alexei Luchanin).
 The gun shield probably comes from an SU-100, as it was missing before the restoration and any SU-85 or SU-122 SPG or ARV that I forgot....

I'm looking for photos of those tanks :

This document is a compilation of photos published on the web. I would like to thank especially Rafał Białęcki, who deserved a great part of the job on this document, and also the people who took these photos and put them on their websites, or sent them to me, and those who helped me doing these lists (particularly people of the AFV News Discussion Board). For any question, you can email me at soldat\_ryan@hotmail.com
